

FAMOUS PLAYERS ORCHESTRA
PRESENTS

Saturday
March 5th, 2016
@7:00 pm

An Evening of Classic Silent Film Comedies

With Live
Musical Accompaniment!

Joe Rinaudo will be projecting 35 millimeter film on an original hand-cranked Power's 1909 Cameragraph Model 6 Motion Picture Machine! All films will be shown with live musical accompaniment, featuring Dean Mora on piano.

Program Includes:

- "The Rink" (1916) Starring Charlie Chaplin
- "Cops" (1922) Starring Buster Keaton
- "The Grocery Clerk" (1920) Starring Larry Semon
- "The Dancing Pig" (Le Cochon Danseur) (1907) Pathé
- "The Acrobatic Fly" (1910) Directed by F. Percy Smith
- "It's a Gift" (1923) Starring Snub Pollard

Show Date: Saturday, March 5th, 2016. Admission is $10.00 (suggested donation)

Location is Christ Lutheran Church 2400 W. Burbank Blvd, Burbank, CA 91506 (Southeast corner of Burbank Bl. & Buena Vista St.) Doors open at 6:15 pm. Show starts at 7:00 pm. Show will run approx. 125 minutes with a 30 minute intermission. Concessions for sale.

All proceeds to benefit Famous Players Orchestra, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, whose mission is dedicated to performing and recording the historic film music used by movie theater orchestras during the silent era. Please visit our website at www.fporchestra.org. Thank you for your support!